

Airline Business students' activity in class

As a part of IAC 2405 In-Flight Meals and Beverages Services course, students had an opportunity to use their creativity and help each other working as a team to create such a beautiful drink which designed to be served on First and Business Class passengers. An In-Flight beverages called Healthy punch from our love and harmony tea in One, they were created by an Airline Business Student Group 60, Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University directed by Aj. Kanittha Charemnit, Lecturer in Airline Business Department.
